Sneak a peek at the most anticipated gems of the 2011 HONG KONG INTERNATIONAL JEWELLERY SHOW

It's never too early to mark your calendar for one of the biggest jewellery shows in the world. Come 4 March 2011, the Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre will be converted into a jewelled wonderland as the Hong Kong International Jewellery Show presents its 28th edition. For four sparkling days, jewellers from all corners of the world will gather in the heart of Asia to showcase their finest gems and most stunning designs.

Expect brands like Dehres and Goldiaq to serve up sumptuous diamond creations, while others like Busatti, The Jewel Box and Roberto Bravo will showcase their creative flair with unusual materials and unexpected shapes. Those looking for wearable sensuality should not miss Hodel's delicate pearl pieces and Stenzhorn's curvaceous Amanda line. Fans of jade and vintage jewellery will also be delighted with whole halls of specialised dealers dedicated to each theme. In addition to jewellery, high-end watches and clocks will also be exhibited at the Hall of Time. From opulent high jewellery to customisable loose stones, the show is a must-see for any jewellery buff.
